Chartis, a comprehensive healthcare advisory firm, has been named to Vault's annual "Best Places to Work" list. Chartis ranked No. 18 among the Best Boutique Consulting Firms and No. 26 among the Top 50 Consulting Firms—up from No. 35 in 2022.

Vault noted, "Chartis is well known for being one of the more employee-centric firms in the healthcare consulting space, with a focus on compassion and empathy that pervades both its internal and client relationships."

"We're thrilled to be featured in this year's Vault's Best Places to Work rankings and are particularly gratified to be recognized in five diversity-related categories," said Shannon Brownell, Chief Talent Officer, Chartis. "This recognition is testament to the powerful things an organization can accomplish by bringing together a diverse group of exceptionally talented professionals who care deeply about the firm's mission, our clients, and each other."

The annual award recognizes consulting firms that deliver a well-rounded work experience. To compile the list, Vault conducted an anonymous employee satisfaction survey measuring a multitude of aspects, including firm culture, satisfaction, benefits, and work-life balance. The 2023 Vault rankings recognize Chartis' unique culture; commitment to diversity, inclusion, and belonging; and approach to client service.

Today, Chartis announced the firm also earned two Best in KLAS rankings, including Best Overall Healthcare Management Consulting Firm for the third straight year, based on client satisfaction, by industry analyst KLAS.
