Chartis, a comprehensive healthcare advisory firm, again has been named to Vault's annual "Best Places to Work" lists. Chartis ranked No. 15 among the Best Boutique Consulting Firms and No. 23 among the Top 50 Consulting Firms, climbing three spots on each list since 2023.

"I'm proud that our focus on innovation, health/wellness, and diversity was cited as a differentiator by our people," said Joel Richard, Vice President, Talent Acquisition, Chartis. "This recognition reinforces our commitment to make a meaningful impact for our people and our clients—while positively transforming healthcare."

The annual award recognizes consulting firms that deliver a well-rounded work experience. To compile the list, Vault conducted an anonymous employee satisfaction survey measuring a multitude of aspects, including firm satisfaction, benefits, and work-life balance. Vault rankings recognize Chartis' commitment to its purpose-driven mission, its people-focused culture and client-centric approach as keys to the firm's success in this year's survey.

Today, Chartis also announced the firm earned three Best in KLAS rankings, including Best Overall Healthcare Management Consulting Firm for the fourth straight year, based on client satisfaction, by industry analyst KLAS.
